Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year to All!

This has been a great year for the MacDougall Society, as we have added a large number of new members. If you are an old or new member to the clan, you are appreciated for all you have contributed. Our officers have done a splendid work, as also the Regional Commissioners, State Representatives and those who have volunteered to work in the clan tents.

Our Tartan newsletter was voted, by the Family Tree and The Ellen Payne Odom Genealogy Library in Moultrie, Georgia, to receive "Honorable Mention Overall Excellence" in the newsletter contest. To produce something of this quality requires the cooperation of YOU as members by sending the information to make our newsletter better with each issue. Your help in this project is gratefully appreciated.

Yours aye,
Pat

In this most holy season we wish for you all the Peace, Hope and Love that was the Lord's message.

And in the New year may our Clan Society grow even closer as it continues to grow larger.

Nollaig Chridheil agus
Betsy and Dick MacDougall
Past President, NE Commissioner

New Year

This has been a banner year for the Region. The MidAtlantic active members volunteered many hours to host and provide Clan MacDougall presence at 20 games, festivals, and events bringing in many new members. Our last event for the year will be the Christmas Walk in Alexandria, Virginia on Saturday, December 2, 2000. An open invitation is extended to all members and friends of Clan MacDougall to join us at the Games & Festivals in our Region. On behalf of all members in the MidAtlantic Region, we send sincere greetings for a joyful Holiday Season filled with hope, love, and peace.

Don and Sandra MacDougall
Co-Commissioners, MidAtlantic Region

Greetings from California,

To our Clan family, Nyla and I extend to you all the very warmest seasons greetings. We hope you all see the Holiday season and the New Year with good health and wealth.

We have been traveling about the area engaged in work which took us to the City of San Francisco. We were providing security for an office change for Price Waterhouse Cooper Company, which brought a heavy demand with security service for me of 12 hours a day. The work lasted only a couple months and it extricated a heavy toll on us. We have plans to travel to Arizona this week to spend the winter as Snow Birds.

This has been a banner year for our Clan, with very hard work being put in by our Commissioners and Officers, and with all of the members that responded to assist in the various Clan tents. Thank you all so very much. As I have mentioned before, I am very proud to be your representative as the President and will do my best to hold our banner high. Our membership has seen a jump in new members the past several months. I extend to all of the new members a hardy welcome.

Please try to assist your area representatives in making our Clan a family affair. Those representatives need your support and assistance, so please do not hesitate to ask what you might be able to do for your Clan.

Once again, seasons greetings to you all, may God Bless you all.

President Mel and Nyla McDougal

This festive season is a time to celebrate the coming year and a time for memories from the old year. I hope these thoughts are happy ones for you wherever you are spending these holidays.

Thank you all for supporting your clan and your Clan MacDougall Society during this year and in the coming New Year. We look forward to meeting you at one of our many gatherings.

We wish a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to each of you.

Scott and Marlene MacDougald
Vice President

May the joyous spirit of the Holiday Season
prevail throughout the

John A. McDougall

To all of our clansmen,
