

Gylen Castle on the south end of the Island of Kerrera viewed from the south east shore. Built by the Chief of Clan MacDougall in 1582. It was captured and burned in 1647 by a detachment of the army of Covenanters attacking loyal Royalist clans in Argyll. Visible is the scaffolding being used in 2004-2006 while Gylen Castle's structure was being stabilized through a project undertaken by our Chief with a £300,000 grant by Historic Scotland and supported by the Clan MacDougall Society of North America.
