

Balzieland Tower House was built after its predecessor was destroyed by fire in 1500. The ruin stands on the grounds of the 30 acre Logan Botanic Garden located 1 1/2 miles (2 km) north of Port Logan in the south Rhinns of Galloway, Scotland. This estate was the stronghold of the McDouall of Logan family who lived here until 1945. The family had held the estate since the 13th century when it was called Balzieland.
